

Biography

Since 2008, Mieke Verloo has been researching and teaching at Radboud University, Nijmegen, the Netherlands, and since 2006 she has been head of the project “Quality in Gender+ Policies,” which is funded by the European Union. She received her Ph.D. in political science at Radboud University in 1992. Verloo deals with the conception and development of equality policies and especially gender mainstreaming. She focuses on intersectional dimensions and combines measures of gender equality with structural categories such as ethnicity and sexuality.
