

Prof. Dr. Mirjana Morokvasic-Müller - Marie Jahoda Visiting Professor - Winter term 1999/2000

Biography

Mirjana Morokvasic-Müller is a lecturer and researcher on post-Communist migration at the Université de Paris in France. She was a political consultant for UNESCO and the European Union and was an international dean at the International Women's University in Hanover, Germany in 2000. Morokvasic-Müller was also a visiting lecturer in Tokyo, Berlin and Great Britain. In addition, she is co-editor of Theory and Society, Current Sociology – Sociologie Contemporaine, Migration and Revue d'études comparatives est-ouest ans Balkanologie.

Areas of Expertise

- Migration, identity processes and gender
- Comparative sociology of post-communism, transnational migration in Europe
- Nationalism and military conflicts

Courses and Lectures as Marie Jahoda Visiting Professor

Gender and Migration

Course, Faculty of Social Science, Ruhr University Bochum, winter term 1999/00, Wednesday, 10–12 a.m.

Selected Publications

Morokvasic, Mirjana. 2004. Settled in Mobility: Engendering Post-wall Migration in Europe. Feminist Review 77 (1): 7–25.

Rudolph, Hedwig, and Mirjana Morokvasic. Eds. 1993. Bridging States and Markets. International Migrations of the Early Nineties. Berlin: Edition Sigma.

Morokvasic, Mirjana. 1991. Roads to Independence. Self-employed Immigrants and Minority Women in Five European States. International Migration 29 (3): 407–420.